Housing Coalitions in Rhode Island

Rhode Island Coalition to End Homelessness

The Coalition works collaboratively with advocates, providers, and faith-based organizations to create and advance lasting solutions to prevent and end homelessness. Day to day the Coalition runs lead on the state's Homeless Management Information System (HMIS) and the permanent housing placement end of the Coordinated Entry System (CES) as well as the call center (available 365 days). We organize legal clinics for constituents, facilitates training sessions, and cohere advocates.

Housing Network of Rhode Island

HNRI is the state's membership organization for agencies committed to the development of affordable housing and vital communities. Currently made up of 16 community development corporations and affordable housing developers, our members have created thousands of affordable housing units and are leading community revitalization and economic development efforts across our State. Their wide array of activities create tangible community change and transform the lives of Rhode Islanders.

HousingWorks Rhode Island

HousingWorks RI at Roger Williams University is a clearinghouse of information about housing in Rhode Island. We conduct research and analyze data to inform public policy. We develop communications strategies and promote dialogue about the relationship between housing and the state's economic future and our residents' well-being.

Homes RI

Our shared vision is that all Rhode Islanders live in safe, healthy, affordable homes in thriving communities. Our common agenda is to increase and preserve the supply of safe, healthy and affordable homes throughout Rhode Island. We also seek to equitably reduce the housing cost burden for low and moderate-income residents.
